The town benefits from excellent road and transport communications. The M40 skirts the southern edge of High Wycombe, with junction 4 at Handy Cross linking to the town centre area and junction 3 to the south east at Loudwater. The London Road is the A40 and links the two junctions.

High Wycombe is a key commuter town with excellent rail communications providing a fastest journey time from London Marylebone of just 24 minutes and to Oxford Parkway of 29 minutes.
